Dear Ev and Eric:

Confirmation: We are looking forward to expecting you in Seabrook on Thursday, September 11th and returning on Tuesday, September 16th.

Dottie and I just came from there and left it in reasonably good order, but just to be sure, we are going a day early to use the Hoover, a broom, a mop, some rags and some muscle.

Please let us know what plane you will come in so that we can meet you at the airport.

Sincerely,

Charles Y. Lazarus

Dear Chuck:

I have evaluated your group of gold coins which I have examined. The valuations used are those taken from a 1986 retail catalogue. The items fluctuate substantially, depending upon the price of gold bullion.

I believe you know that the items on the second page were not in the group which I saw, only the items on the first page. There is one minor mistake in the list, as the 1843 coin is listed as D Mint, whereas it is O Mint.

Dorothy will be bringing back these coins to you with these lists.

If I can be of any further help, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Eric:

When Dotty came back from St. Louis, she brought with her your letter of the 24th, your appraisal and gold coins. Thanks so very, very much. This gives me a much, much better idea of what's really involved.

In addition, the cases you put them in are just wonderful, so a thousand thanks.

I hope you and Evelyn had a wonderful trip and loved Luebeck as much as we did and got to go to the Viking restaurant, whatever it's called.

Dotty joins in sending love to you both.

Very truly yours,

Charles Y. Lazarus

Dear Chuck:

I enclose a photocopy of a 1869 $3 advertising bill which gives me a 5% discount at his store. Did Lazarus put this neighbor out of business, or can I still come and use the note? Incidentally, this note is a comic version of the expression "as phony as a $3 bill".

After you have studied this matter, you may report to me in Jamaica as to your findings.

Evelyn joins me in wishing both of you a happy holiday.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Chuck:

I read with great interest the program presented to families who had offices.
I am grateful that through your good offices I received it.

The exciting part about the program is that it offers to economically very disadvantaged groups lessons taken from one another's experiences on how to get the greatest satisfaction from life, and how to use economic power for the well-being of all people.

I wish our family would open an office.

Thanks for the stimulant. Don't rock the boat, particularly the Delta Queen.

Our best,

EPN:bv

P.S. Thanks, Dottie,
for the excerpt.
